

Dwelling in eternity, you broke into
time;
living in heavenly light,
you entered this world's darkness to be its Light.

While we see darkness all around us, we know it will never overcome the Light;
that is what we believe that is the great Advent hope.

Work in us and through us,
and use us to be little lights shining in your world
and dispelling darkness wherever we are.

For your love's sake, AMEN

He became all that we are, that we might become all that He is.

(St. Gregory of Nazianzus)
